

WEATHER REPORT

For a month it rained lawsuit. Then
it snowed white on dark
retinal detachment,

an asphalt one-lane
getting narrower
as if elongated
by the pull of weather

suburbs
whited out
till there's nothing
on either side.

Cutbank, ditch
spine of a bucking horse
to drive on,
eyes shut tight

before the alarm
goes off
loud with silence
and forecast.
