

Wilderness House Literary Review 21/3

Partha Sarkar

The address to know the address

I ask

The address to know the address.

The fabricated face.

The colorless blood.

The system – the guillotine

Plays the double role.

I read

The time table of history

To know the time to start

A new kindergarten

And

Get confused.

I ask

The address to know the address

To return to the fire place

And

Get lost.
